Vice President's Message: August 2004

Greetings!

I hope that this monthly president's message finds everybody health and WET as the summer of 2004 rolls on. First, let me share with you that this message is being written by your faithful VP in abstentia of our fearless president Michael Donovan. Mike is presently recuperating from surgery. We all wish him a speedy recovery!

The months of June and July have been packed with activities both above and below the waves. Although Mother Nature has not been very cooperative at times, it has not stopped us from enjoying the sport we love. In June, my family and I traveled to Paradise Island in the Bahamas. We enjoyed all the amenities at the Atlantis Hotel and Casino. Close by is the Holiday Inn which features a "Bahama Divers". I had dove with Bahama Divers before and found them to be a very capable outfit. I had the pleasure of my two sons accompanying me. Scott just wanted to snorkel but Marc wanted to get down with dad. Marc is not certified so he had to take the "resort" course offered at the Holiday Inn. We dove a sight called Angelfish Reef. Although not very deep (20 ft tops), the variety of sea life here was astounding. Along with the usual tangs, parrots, and, of course, angelfish, there were conchs, brittle stars, and Christmas tree worms. We had about an hour of bottom time before we had to head back.

The next day was dad's day off. First up, the mailboat wreck. Sunk in 1988 as an artificial reef, the wreck lies upright on a sandy bottom at about 65 feet. Water temp both days I was there was in the upper eighties. I had a great time exploring all over the top deck and looking into the hatches. The wreck has split up so some of the pieces lie just a few yards off the main chunk (the stern). Lots of needle fish and the usual tropicals floating by. I had about half an hour here and then it was off to our second spot, a marine park. On this day, it was VERY crowded and we were diving at low tide. This was another "depthchallenged" location; about 20 ft at the most. Lots of snorkel boats were in the area. I managed to see a HUGE sea cucumber (the things you see AFTER you have run out of film!) and many small fish guarding their nests. We only were given about 45 minutes here but it was a great dive never the less.

For all the beauty of tropical diving, there is no place like home. We had an enjoyable night dive this month. Jack Munro and Mary Howard joined me at Back Beach. For the middle of summer, the water lately has seemed unusually cold. I did "real" ("wet") diving. I was OK on the first dive but noticeably colder on the second. On the first dive, we were led to a field of ghost traps by a huge striper. This was just beyond and around the corner by the wall on the left. I figured there must have been a dozen and they had been there for a long time. On the night dive, I found a baby sea raven. The little guy was only a few inches long. Stripers seem to be coming in. We surfaced to a completely covered beach at high tide and a glorious full moon coming up over Bearskin Neck.

We had our first boat dive of the season this month. Dan Hering, Daryl Findlay, Mary Howard, and myself went out with Captain Fran aboard the Daybreaker. I also brought along a co-worker from bomb detection central; Kumsal Sezen. We went off House Island first. We were in search of the mighty scallop but we didn't find a whole lot. We searched along the sand for the first third of the dive and then headed back into the island to check out some of the underwater ledges. Our second dive was off Kettle Island. This was a shallower dive. Our quarry was lobsters and photos. I managed to bring home one lobster; upping my total FOR THE YEAR to THREE (yea! way ta go!). If you ever get the chance, a dive aboard Daybreaker is a very enjoyable experience. Capt. Fran and his son do everything they can to take away any diverelated stress and let you enjoy your diving! Fresh cut cantaloupe, cookies, and hot water rinses for your wet gear are all standard. I hope you can join us on one of the remaining two dives; August 14th and October 9th. I can guarantee you will be back for more!

We also had a very informative presentation by Lt. John Tulik of the Massachusetts Environmental Police. Lt. Tulik's presentation was on the changes to the lobster regulations that went in this year. One of the most important changes was the "zero tolerance" regulation regarding "V" notched lobsters. Before, the ruling was "any lobster with such and such a 'v ' notch. This year, ANY marking on the first fin to the right is to be considered a V notch and cannot be taken. It doesn't matter what shape it is; circle, triangle, bump, an impression of Elvis's face, whatever. He addressed the membership on their concerns and also provided cooking tips!

We are most fortunate to have Lt. Tulik to our meetings. With the reduction in manpower at the MEP, his time is quite limited. He requested a change in protocol to go on stage first so he could get home and prepare for a court date the next day. The fact that Lt. Tulik took his time out to come talk to us is something that we as Froggies & divers are most grateful for.

As we continue our journey into the summer of 2004, we have many upcoming events to enjoy. We have the Great Annual Fish Count on July 17^{th} , an exciting seal dive on July 18^{th} , our second beach meeting on July 22^{nd} , and the almost full moon night dive on July 28^{th} . John Sears is heading up an outing to a North Shore Spirit's baseball game on July 31^{st} . My hat goes off to my partner in activities Daryl Findlay for his help in organizing all these great club events, producing the Sea Hunt video shows and keeping me on track when I forget something [:]^) . Check out the complete listing of events in this issue. Also, go online at:

http://www.geocities.com/nsfrogmen/activities.html

for a constantly updated listing. We are eager to listen to any of your comments, concerns, and suggestions! Just send an email to:

DiveTalk@hotmail.com

and you WILL be heard!.

In closing, I would like to wish our president a speedy recovery and he can get back into the water soon. I hope everyone is enjoying their summer both above and below the waves.

Bonaire Dive Trip September 18-25

Some Froggies are organizing a trip to the Divi Flamingo in Bonaire N A, going through Undersea Divers since they know how it's done. Includes 2 morning boat dives and an afternoon boat dive, room, air fare, breakfast, and only 2 people per room. Deposit of $500 needed ASAP, final payment due July 25. Total cost for the trip is $1395 and or -$150 on nondivers.

Dear Members I spent a week diving on the Island and loved it. So when it came time to organize a trip for later this year with some of the people we've gone to Hatteras with they said "Hey lets go warmer, Like Bonaire" since I loved it they figure it'll be worth it. Please feel free to contact Bobby @ Undersea Divers (978 927 9551) or myself (978 458 7397 or cell if its hot 978 930 7397) to ask any ?'s you may have.

Submissions deadline: November 4

Voting date: December 2

I hope everyone is planning to take lots of good pictures for this year's photo contest since we are planning to hold this wonderful event again this year. I also hope everyone plans to come and view the contributions on election night as they are always wonderful!

Contest rules:

Photographs should be submitted as prints, maximum size to be no more than 8" x 11". Please do not mount or frame your photos. These must be photographs taken since last December. There will be six categories for photos this year: (1) above water, dive-related, (2) under cold water, macro or close-up, (3) under cold water, standard or wide-angle, (4) under warm water, macro or close-up, and (5) under warm water, standard or wide-angle, and the newest category (6) is for digitally enhanced photos. Please do NOT enhance any of the submission for other categories. Please submit your pictures to me by November 4, but you can start turning them in any time in October. This gives you plenty of time to plan, so there will be no excuses or late submissions. And it gives me plenty of time to prepare the display.

Voting for the best picture in each category will be held on election night for new officers, December 2, 2004.
